- Please weigh the cost of the repair fees against the purchase of a new controller. Note that we may not be able to service controllers that are over 6 months old because we no longer carry their parts. If we are unable to repair your controller it will be returned to you as is, but the repair service fee is non-refundable.
- All controllers received for repair are fully tested before repairs are begun. Once we determine the root cause of your problem you will be emailed about any additional costs needed to complete repairs.
